

Interreg

Co-funded by the European Union

North-West Europe

BUFFER+

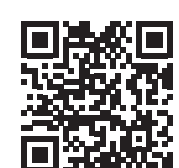

Sustainable business models for peatlands

Extensive grazing in a peatland area is one of the several sustainable business models studied by the BUFFER+ project, alongside paludiculture, payments for ecosystem services, and peat-free potting soil.

In this study, the project highlights real-world barriers as well as solutions to support farmers and landowners seeking climate-resilient income, thereby paving the way for sustainable land use.

Lead partner:

Province of Groningen (NL)

bufferplus.nweurope.eu

Photo ©: BUFFER+

